

Awards galore!

PBTC won four awards for Wind In The Willows at this year's Barnet Drama Festival – Best Theatrical Production, Best Set Design and Most Ambitious Choice of Play, with Roger Huggins voted Best Supporting Actor.

Richard Jackson was nominated as Best Actor for his performance as Mr Toad. Debbie Oakes was nominated for Best Supporting Actress after playing the Bargewoman. And Victoria Absolon was nominated for the Best Young Player award, with the adjudicator saying she couldn't take her eyes off her performance as a weasel!

Congratulations to all the winners, nominees and to everyone else involved in the production.
